3 United States of America,

4 Plaintiff

5 v.

6 Ramon Desage, et. al,

7 Defendants

Case No.: 2:13-cr-00039-JAD-VCF

Order Granting Government's Motion for New Self-Surrender Date

[ECF No. 409]

8 Ramon Desage pled guilty to conspiring to defraud the United States and was sentenced 9 to three years in prison for his more than $28 million tax underpayment.¹ On the eve of his self-
10 surrender date, Desage filed an emergency motion to delay his incarceration pending appeal.²
11 When this court denied that motion, Desage sought the same relief from the Ninth Circuit,
12 triggering a stay of his February 6, 2020, self-surrender obligation. The Ninth Circuit has now 13 denied Desage's motion for bail pending appeal, and because Desage's self-surrender date has 14 now passed, the government moves this court to set a new self-surrender date within the next 15 seven days.³ Good cause appearing, IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the government's 16 motion for a new self-surrender date [ECF No. 409] is GRANTED. Desage must self-surrender
17 to the Bureau of Prisons by February 20, 2020.
